

THEORY OF CHANGE July 2023 Impact (Overall Objective/goal) ALL PEOPLE IN VULNERABLE SITUATIONS LIVE IN HABITABLE ENVIRONMENTS OF THEIR CHOICE AND ARE ABLE TO EXPRESS AND ADVANCE THEIR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS AND INTERESTS FREELY Conducive & Responsive living environments Strengthened grassroots voices Sustainable Comm livelihoods initiatives Communities living in informal settlements Vulnerable communities within Communities have a Municipalities have Communities have access Outcomes are able to work through the Constitutional areas of gentrification have strong agency and are institutionalised inclusive to resources from public Rights to access social and economic equitable access to the inner city continuously holding and private institutions and participatory opportunities for their livelihood and its resources. municipalities to account that ensure sustainable processes. development. and uphold inclusivity. livelihoods. Vulnerable people have strong social movements and democratically participate in processes to ensure that they have equal rights and opportunities to acquire fair access to resources. Support clusters of Support and strengthen Support municipalities in Support social movements so that vulnerable communities living in informal settlements strengthening methods to communities to monitor, community structures to and within inner cities can acquire housing, basic services and access to economic use for participatory and engage with and influence identify, resource and opportunities within their respective municipalities. Activities municipal decision-making implement sustainable inclusive governance and transparent accountability. and actions and hold development initiatives. municipalities accountable. Outputs Participatory models of upgrading informality Tools and models of affective communities Models to support community-based in the inner city and out of city settlements. and local government participation designed organisations in developing avenues to creating and developed to improve local government sustainable livelihoods. Case studies. delivery systems that depict inclusiveness, transparency and accountability.